OCTOPUS 2021 New Features

Version 18

- Routing: scanning angle possible beyond 180°

- Routing: taking into account reversing or anchoring if the current is too strong

- Routing overview: average time on selected routings; possibility to show / hide / unload

- Routing board: right-click in the histogram to reschedule forecasts

- Polar modification: apply percentages in the tables

- Tracks: possibility to choose the duration of the track loaded at launch over 24 hours, the current day or none

- Tracks and routings: quick access to the last 4 loads

- Forecast: Iridium Go connection taken into account

- Central connection: connection to a Zeus directly via GoFree (Ethernet and Wifi)

- Central connection: send wp to gps if the GPS is read through the central unit

- GPS connection: the name of the waypoints sent is now 20 characters long

- Histographs: possible re-centering on a portion of the screen

- Geo-referenced images: new management of favourites for simplified and more complete access

- Numerical data: availability of the comparison between predicted wind and measured wind

- Numerical data tab: use of all available space